40c MATTINGS 27½c

A GOOD part of the cost is saved on these Mattings through an unexpected purchase from one of our regular importers. There are exactly 58 rolls in the lot—consisting of the very best grade Mattings that come to this country—such as 100 and 110-lb. Chinas and heavy long rush and selva edge Japanese cotton warp Mattings; the latter in handsome carpet patterns.

Such Mattings as sell everywhere else at 40c a yard (some stores ask 50c) here tomorrow at 27½c a yard.

Goldenberg's

"The Dependable Store"—7th and K Sts.

This Store Is the Best Providing Place for Inaugural Supplies...

Sale of Samples Decorated Chinaware At One-Fourth Regular Prices

Our buyer, while on a buying trip to the New England potteries, closed out a lot of about 300 pieces of Decorated Chinaware, comprising the odd pieces and factory samples, at a ridiculously low figure. These are to be distributed tomorrow at about one-fourth the regular cost of such articles. The sale offers a great buying opportunity to Washington housekeepers in their preparations for the inauguration. If in need of an odd piece to match a toilet set, it can be bought for next to nothing. The sale includes the following wanted articles: Brush Vases, 10c—China Mugs, 10c—Small Pitchers, 19c—Large Pitchers, 49c—Toilet Bowls, 49c—Chambers, 39c—Bowls and Pitchers, 98c—and many other pieces. These are all in handsome Decorated China, in lovely tinted effects, filled-in decorations in various colors.

Sale of SILVERWARE At One-half, One-third, and Less

This sale of two prominent maker's overplus lots of Silverware comes just at a time when everybody is making preparations for the Inauguration—and will be doubly appreciated for the large savings it makes possible.

Our buyer happened to be on the spot when surplus stock was being cleaned up—and bought at immense concession all the small lots and pieces of which only a few of a pattern remained.

The makers represented in the sale are Wm. Rogers, Forbes and Apollo Silverware Companies, names that stand for high quality. The Silverware itself will remain a valued family possession long after the Inauguration is a memory of the past.
